Benefits of PAC Membership

Canada's Voice on Packaging

When it comes to industry relations PAC is sought after to consult and speak on members behalf on subjects such as Extended Producer Responsibility, Ontario Waste Diversion Act and Blue Box Program, Sustainable Packaging and Food & Packaging Safety.

Sustainable Packaging Leadership

PAC has been an environmental champion for the industry for decades. In the 90's PAC led the industry in reaching the 2000 National Packaging Protocol goals by 1996. Since 2006 PAC has been the leader of the Sustainable Packaging movement.

Access to Blue Chip Members

If you want access to the Canadian packaging community, PAC is your go-to destination. PAC is the common link in the supply chain. There are over 375 corporate and 1000 associate members.

Walmart Sustainable Packaging Exposition and/or Conference

Only Walmart Vendors & PAC members were at these events: 550 attendees in June 2007, 850 attendees in Nov 2007 and over 1000 attendees in May 2009.

Leader in Packaging Education

PAC has been the leader in education for the Canadian packaging community since the 1950's. Our programs include:

- 12 day Packaging Certificate course which consists for 4 modules which are also
- Offered as individual modules for those only interested in that specific application
- 4 day Precisely Packaging course, a short version of the Certificate course
- 2 day Essentials of Sustainable Packaging
- 1 day PACsecure course, a HACCP based food safety standard for packaging material
- 1 day Walmart Scorecard training and
- Custom designed programs for specific customer needs

Cross Canada Representation

PAC National office is in Toronto, with 6 regional chapters from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Individual chapters provide local networking, business and social events throughout the year.

Not-for-Profit & Product Neutral

PAC is a not-for-profit corporation founded in 1952 and relies on membership support for association activities and services.

We are a packaging neutral association. We advocate and promote all packaging materials that strive to achieve sustainability according to the Sustainable Packaging Coalition definition of sustainable packaging.
