Keynote Speaker

Tom Szaky
Founder & CEO

TerraCycle enables consumers to collect waste which it then upcycles into thousands of various consumer products that are sold at the world's biggest retailers from Walmart to Whole Foods. TerraCycle has been named the producer of most eco-friendly products in America, has won over 100 environmental and social awards, received the Home Depot Environmental stewardship award twice, been featured in Walmart's sustainability report and been repeatedly named the ultimate eco-friendly brand.
